VISTA MARIA

Dolly Drive

Be a doll and gather your friends for a night of mixing, mingling and happy hour fun to benefit the agency's mission to care for, treat and educate Michigan's most vulnerable youth. Your generous donation of a brand new doll, stuffed animal, or action figure will provide funding and support for children in foster care and girls in our residential treatment programs.

Grab your friends and a new doll to donate to the ultimate Friends' Night Out fund-raiser at Vista Maria! Held at the Royal Oak Music Theatre, the exciting event will benefit our agency's foster care and human trafficking programs, while also providing a memorable evening filled with food, cocktails, laughter, mixing and mingling.

In stepping out for night of fun with friends, Dolly Drive guests will enjoy musical entertainment, happy hour specials, delicious appetizers, and more. Even greater, by donating a new doll, stuffed animal or action figure, attendees will provide the support needed to continue programming for youth in the foster care system, as well as girls in our residential treatment programs. See you there!
